THE YALE-VIRGINIA GAME

Norfolk Will be Gay After Easter, In Fact, it Wants to be Gay Now. The Game of Saturday Provided the Awaited Opportunity.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

NORFOLK, April 11.—Social affairs of all kinds that were not imperative have been deferred till after Easter. Nothing was done this week that could be avoided. The whole attention of all of the members of society has been absorbed in the preparations for Easter and the succeeding gayeties for which Lent has been an invitation and has furnished the varied onticements of privation and preparation. Norfolk society will be gay after Easter. Many of its members are eager to be gay now. They will accept the occasion of the visit of the teams of base-ball men here from the universities of Yale and Virginia to force the season. That game took place here to-day and the members of the teams and their friends were not allowed any rest because of the season or because the bar against gayety had not then been lifted from the religious world. Some of the events of the week were as follows:

or because the bar against gayety and not then been lifted from the religious world. Some of the events of the week were as follows:

Miss Amy Rodgers entertained her friends Wednesday at her home at South Norfolk. The occasion was a carrom party, given in honor of her guest, Miss Ruth Coates, of East Lynn, Conn. The tally cards were hand-painted heads. The first prize, a pair of cur buttons, was won by Miss Mellssa Payne, and the gentleman's prize was to Mr. Vernon Grant, who received "Lady Rose's Daughter." Those present were Miss Coates, Miss Mellssa Payne, Aliss Evelyn Grant, Miss Edna Carskaddon, Miss Evelyn Grant, Miss Edna Carskaddon, Miss Evelyn Walke, Mr. Vernon Grant, Mr. John Walke, Mr. John Walke, Mr. L. FARMVILLE, VA., April 11.—The Virginia Normal League held its annual spring meeting Thursday morning, April ginia Normal League held its annual spring meeting Thursday morning, April 9th, Miss Patteson presiding. The following officers were elected for the coming year; Miss Virginia Reynolds, president; Miss Annie Kinzer, vice-president; Miss Bertha Triplett, secretary; Miss Carrie McGeorge, treasurer; Mrs. Portia L. Marrison, chairman of Ald Committee; Mr. Jeseph L. Jarman, chairman of Educational Burcau; Miss Lula O, Andrews, chairman of Finance Committee.

The reports of standing committees show the league to be in excellent condition, which is most encouraging. The Normal League is undoubtedly the worth-lest organization connected with educational affairs at the Normal School, and its growth in membership and influence is most gratifying. Eight new members were added to the roll.

A most inferesting club, known as the Nature Study Club, has just been organized, with Grace B. Holmes, president; Bernice Bradshaw, vice-president; Anna C Paxton, secretary and treasurer. The object of the club is to supplement the work in nature study done in the school and to prepare more thoroughly the students especially interested in this subject for nature study work in the public schools. A most excellent programme was carried out at the last meeting. It consisted of a debate; Resolved, That Nature Study is a Fad. Agnes McLave, Mary Peck and Midred Cook represented the affirmative side of the question, and Misses Lancaster, Charlotte Murrel, and Annie McLaughlin the negative. Justine Pickrelt and Mary Giggin reported on and to prepare described on the April periodicals which devoted space to nature study.

Armor—An armor beit will extend five feet below and four feet above normal load line and from stem to storn. It will be six inches thick at the top and five inches thick at the bottom. The maximum thickness will be preserved for a depth of six feet from the top. The armor will taper at the stem and storn to a thickness of three and one-half inches. The armor on the Hichborn balanced oval turrets, with inclined port plates, will be six and one-half inches thick on the port plate and six inches thick on the sides and roar.

Battery—The main battery will consist of four 8-inch breech-loading rifles mounted two in each turret on the center line of the vessel. There will be fourteen 6-inch rapid-fire gubs and a secondary battery of eighteen 8-inch and twelve 8-pounder guns, besides four 1-pounder automatic guns, four 1-pounder rapid-fire guns, six Colt automatic guns, two machine guns and two 3-inch field guns. will present, at the new Town Hall, "Because I Love You," a romance written by John M. Frazier, in the noted author's most happy style, in which he mingles with the tender emotions a liberal sprinkling of sarcasm, wit and repartee. Now that the younger set have something to look forward to, nearly two weeks of rehearsals, before the great event comes off, of course, it is perfectly natural that the older ones will take a live interest when it is known that every dollar taken in at the door and from the adjacent refreshment stand will go to swell the fund being raised to creet a monument to the memory of Louisa's Confederate dead.

Since last Easter two of the handsomest churches in the city have been opened, St. Andrew's Catholic and Greene Memorial Mothodist. Last Easter both churches made no attempt at fine music, but to-morrow both will have elaborate musical programme. The choir of St. Andrew's, unde rthe direction of Mrs. Brophy, has been practicing for weeks, while the choir of Greene Memorial will devote the whole of Sunday overing services to a special musical programme. It is needless to say that St. John's Episcopal Church also has an elaborate programme.

Just now the fair sex are studying closely the weather predictions and Hicks, are much concerned about the weather for Easter Sunday. The merchants and milliners say they have never sold so many costumes and Easter hats, and the florists are rushed with orders for Easter flowers. If the weather is pleasant Sunday morning Roanoke will have an Easter, parade that will equal in beauty that of any city in the State.

On Monday night the Roanoke Players' Club will present "Wealth and Matrimony," a very appropriate play for Easter Monday. As it is a dressy, society play, the young ladies of the company are much interested in the costumes that they are to wear, and there is considerable rivalry among them.

The play will be produced for the benefit of the Odd-Fellows, and indications point to a large audience.

An event of social and church interest was the Easter sale and musicale of the Ladies' Ald Society of the Second Presbytorian Church, at Mrs. D. H. Matson's residence, on Eighth Avenue, S. W. The morning services in the post chapel were largely attended last Sunday. Captain Robert Helton, United States army, sang The Palms as an offertory. The services during the week were also well attended by the guests from the hotels as well as the army people.

On Monday afternoon the lovers of base-ball journeyed out to the Soldiers' Home grounds to see the game between the teams of the Artillery School and Cornell University, which resulted in a victory for Cornell. To-day quite a number of enthusiasts have gone over to Norfolk to see the game between Yale and the University of Virginia. On Wednesday evening, instead of the usual midweek hop, the wafters of the Chamberlin gave a cake walk in the ball room, which was done in true darkey style, and much enjoyed by their large audience.

Almost every one who has been wearing sack cloth and ashes lays it aside and joins in the gayties attendant upon Easter. To-night will be the one of the year, and the guests at the hotels are eagerly anticipating a very gay postlenien season of which to-night is the beginning.
